

Done

1 of 23

97 ORCHARD STREET

This 1863 tenement was home to 7,000 immigrants. They faced challenges we face today—making new lives, raising families, working for better futures. Today, it houses the Lower East Side Tenement Museum, which presents the history of immigration through the personal stories of generations of newcomers who built this country.

TENEMENT MUSEUM
SHOP LIFE IS MADE POSSIBLE THROUGH THE GENEROUS SUPPORT OF THE DAVID BENE FOUNDATION

